MARINELLO RENOVATES STUDENT SALON FOR LAYTON CAMPUS

WHITTIER, CA — Marinello Schools of Beauty, the leading chain of beauty schools on the West Coast, invited the Layton community on Tuesday, January 12th to celebrate the grand opening of its high-end, newly remodeled student salon and top senior student space, The Studio at Marinello. The new student salon features 3,000 square-feet of luxury where students and clients can enjoy a high-end salon experience at affordable school prices.

The salon was buzzing with excitement. Over 100 guests came out in support of the grand opening including the media, prospective students, alumni, corporate partners, and community leaders. Marinello students provided guests with complimentary skin analysis consultations and the salon offered discounts on products and services including a fabulous $5 haircut.

Jared Bank from radio station 97.1 ZHT and Ian McGregor from MY 99.5 aired live from Marinello's newly remodeled salon, giving away beauty products and Marinello spa and makeover packages to listeners.

“We are committed to providing students with the best of beauty education. The renovated salon is not only a state-of-the-art facility—it is a place where students can gain real-world experience in a high-end environment,” commented Dr. Nagui Elyas, President and COO of Marinello Schools of Beauty. “We were honored to have such strong support by the community.”

Located at 575 N. Main, Layton, this campus offers Cosmetology/Barbering, Esthetics, Instructor Training, Master Esthetics, and Nail Technology training.
